

Corporate Fact Sheet

- Company: OKbridge, Inc.
- Date Founded: 1994
- Founded by: Matthew Clegg, Founder and CEO
- Mission: Leverage the Internet to create a powerful online bridge community in which seasoned players can challenge one another and beginners can learn the game, all in the comfort and convenience of their homes or anywhere they have access to an Internet connection.
- Members: Nearly 13,000 members in more than 100 countries.
- Products:
- OKwin*
Introduced in 1995, this flagship offering is one of the most popular online bridge games for Microsoft Windows® users, running on all versions from Windows 95 and up.
- OKplus*
Introduced in June 2004, this browser-based version works with any browser or platform, including Apple Macintosh® and Microsoft Windows.
- Both OKwin and OKplus feature daily stratified tournaments that simulate a duplicate movement at a traditional bridge club. The stratified tournaments use the extremely popular 12-board mini format, allowing players with limited time to have the tournament experience at their convenience. Players can combine two 12-board minis to play the more traditional 24-board tournament.
- OKbridge's products offer a highly intuitive interface, advanced functionality and unprecedented flexibility. An annual membership of $99 includes unlimited play, the opportunity to chat online with other members, "kibitz" the pros as well as access up-to-date bridge articles and expert advice. Trial memberships are available.
